Jackets (Medium and Large Animals)

Innovative design and down to the smallest detail the Medium & large Animal jackets fulfill all the demands placed on today's investigators. A single jackets will typically incorporate many materials, special featured and fabrication methods which combine to increase comfort for the subject, as well as ease of use for the handler.

A range of standard designs are available.

Necessary accessories.

For procedures requiring ambulant equipment, we provide an endless choice of accessories such as: pockets to hold all manner of delicate equipment, anchoring points for tethering, attachments for restrain systems, clips for collars or other attachments. velcro, snaps and other fasteners. Jackets and accessories become even more specialized when an innovative fabric is incorporated into the design.

Custom made jackets.

In our experience we learned that it is important to know up front what your requirements will be, in order to deliver you a well fitting, easy to work with jacket. It is therefore that we often ask you to fill in a measurement form and inform us about you application needs. Specially when ordering larger number of jackets we prefer to work with a prototype first.

Telemetry Jackets

Telemetric jackets and undershirts for various external telemetric systems are available. Since these telemetry systems continue to evolve so do the jackets. Please contact us for more information about the possibilities. A range of standard telemetry jackets are available for the most commonly used systems.

Species

The jackets are manufactured for every animal species used in today's laboratories including: rodents, canines, non-human primates, swine, ruminants, rabbits. cats and many more. You can order jackets by weight, body measurements and study requirements.
